Married August 11, 1938

The Golden Day

Take my hand he said to her,
My blushing bride to be,
Stay with me throughout my life,
And all eternity.

Together we will make a home,
We'll raise a family,
I'll cherish you my whole life through,
My only love you'll be.

She turned her soft blue eyes to him,
Her smile shone like the sun,
She whispered, "Yes, I'll be your wife,"
And two were forged to one.

Their love was strong, it stood each test,
Through laughter and through tears,
Now she turns to him on this special day
And says, "They've all been golden years."
